

*If you hurry,
you can make one
more Christmas wish
come true....*

In the gang-controlled barrio of El Pauji, on the outskirts of Caracas, Venezuela, Coraima's parents had given in to despair and alcoholism. Coraima's only hope for the future was found at school — her Latin America ChildCare school. Because of a sponsor like you, here she receives nutritious food, a Christian education and the opportunity to learn and grow in Jesus.

You can make another child's Christmas wish come true by sponsoring her in Latin America ChildCare. You'll have the joy of knowing that you've given another child like Coraima hope for the future! And sponsorship is a commitment of just $32 per month.
